

Pier Newsletter 4

After months of patiently and impatiently waiting for news, it's all getting very busy all at once!

Our planning appeal has reached the top of the queue and has been allocated a Planning Inspector. The appeals process is handled nationally, so let's hope for a speedy decision.

Volunteers are scoping out some new activities. If you have been thinking about helping, please get in touch as there is plenty to do this summer.

Coastal Revival Fun

We had the fantastic news that the Coastal Revival Fund has granted the pier £50,000. This is a tremendous step forward and couldn't have come at a better time. We are now starting to get quotes and meet with contractors who want to get involved.

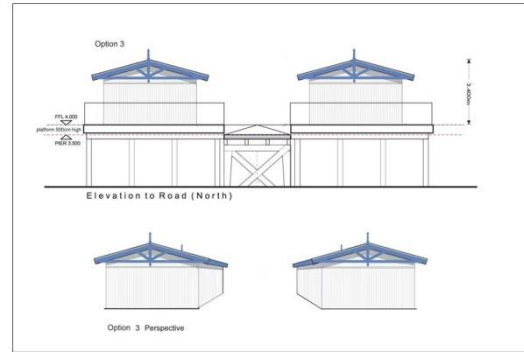

We were delighted to welcome our MP, James Cartlidge to come and celebrate with volunteers at the pier, and the photo was featured in the East Anglian Daily Times online and in print.

Save the Date: 26th April

We hope to see you at Shotley village hall at an informal investors' meeting on Friday 26th April, doors open at 7pm

We hope to present the latest plans and maybe, just maybe, some news.

April Coffee Morning Artist

Rosemary Claydon will be our Artist of the Month for April.

"I wanted to paint when I retired and at first I spent hours with my sketch book in quiet corners at Pinmill. Courses at Snape and Flatford Mill followed.

Nowadays I use watercolours, gouache, newsprint, pastels, and ink. I find it difficult to part with paintings as they are full of memories."
