

National Trust

Ideas to brighten your week

While we all need to stay at home this Easter to keep ourselves and each other safe, you can still stay connected to the places you love. Our website has a wealth of stories, imagery, podcasts and films for you to explore – keep an eye out for an Easter video message from Hilary McGrady, our Director-General.

Watch the video

Get up with the birds

Once you become a morning lark, you might never want to have another lie-in. The dawn colours make a spectacular palette across the sky, and early morning birdsong fills the air. Connect with nature in the earlier hours of the day.

Become a morning lark

Enjoy spring's beauty

We can always count on spring to bring warmth and colour into our lives. There are lots of ways to enjoy the beauty of the season and take comfort from the natural world. Get to know the wildlife on your doorstep and pause to notice the shapes of the clouds. Bring the magic of spring into your own home by trying out some delicious Easter recipes.

Find things to do

Behind ITV's Belgravia

You might be spending Sunday evenings watching ITV's adaptation of Julian Fellowes' novel Belgravia – but did you know it was partly inspired by two places in our care, with others used as locations for the filming? Keep an eye out while you're watching and see how many you recognise.

Discover the locations

We've got lots of ideas to keep you busy, even in your own back garden. Our simple tips will help you attract more wildlife into your outdoor space. Watch and enjoy.

© National Trust - Heelis, Kemble Drive, Swindon SN2 2NA

The National Trust is a registered charity, number 205846. We rely on income from membership fees, donations and legacies, and revenue raised from our commercial operations.

Privacy Policy | Enquiries