Events kindly donated by the Red Lion so all funds raised go to help the Pier

Our Artist of the Month for May will be Jim Kemp

Your purchases gain the pier fund a donation from the Artist of the Month, so if you are thinking of buying art, it helps our pier fund too

We will be there on Wednesday 3rd May from 10.15am - 11.45am, with the entry price of £6 including a hot drink of tea or coffee and a delicious slice of home-made cake.

We will hold a raffle, and our bespoke rum will also be on sale as well as pier memorabilia and original art.

The Red Lion has very kindly agreed to donate the venue and the teas and coffees for the monthly meetings this year, a big commitment that we are very grateful for.

We hope you will attend and renew friendships. It will be our pleasure to see you again, and to re-new the ideas and suggestions for fund raising to start again.

Jim Kemp

Jim is a Suffolk based painter, and has spent many years teaching Watercolour technique, running courses in Shotley, Ipswich, and Stowmarket. Jim paints anything that catches his eye as pleasing to look at!

Coronation Chorus at the Pier
Friday 5th May 6pm - 6.30pm

The Big Help Out
Monday 8th May
9am onwards near the Pier

Our friends at Shotley Peninsula Shoreline community interest company intend to tidy up the path area near the picnic area:

Come with your wheelbarrows and help us shift some rubble. No wheelbarrow? Then help fill the wheelbarrows. Many hands make light work

Save the Date: 17th - 18th June

We are organising an Arts and Crafts weekend at Shotley Church, which has been very popular in previous years. It's a joint fund raiser with the church.

Local artists and crafters will have great displays. Refreshments will include cakes, sausage rolls, and hot and cold drinks, If you know of a walking group, why not suggest they have a walk with a break at the Church?
